

Press Release

Nosh And Bytes Hosts European Winter Food Festival

Kolkata, 9th November, 2015: To celebrate the onset of winter season, Nosh and Bytes, an European Casual Dining restaurant will host the European Winter Food Festival. The festival will start from 15th November, 2015 and will serve an array of lip smacking European delicacies to add on the season's festivities.

“During my travel days in Europe, the idea of hosting a winter food festival came across my mind. The menu has been prepared keeping in mind the authentic European dishes served during the winter season. The spread will have more emphasis on the unique winter - special delicacies that the food lovers will savour”, said Santanu Mullick, Owner, Nosh and Bytes.

The scrumptious dishes in the vegetarian spread are Penne Ala Vodka, Chestnut Soup and Potato Wrap with Thom.

The non-vegetarian delicacies include Iranian Steamed Fish, Parma Wrapped Chicken, Chicken Gorgonzola, Potato Di Polo with Salsa Funghi, Chicken Roulade with Mango Dip and Grilled Jumbo Prawn.

At the end of this delicious food trail, the dessert lovers can enjoy Hot Chocolate Fondant to complete the entire mouth-watering European winter food voyage.

Meal for two will cost around Rs 800 plus taxes as applicable.

About Nosh and Bytes:

Nosh And Bytes, spread over 1,000 square feet at Wood Street, is the perfect place for a brunch, afternoon soiree with friends, evening get-togethers or the perfect dinner with your family and the loved ones. The unforgettable experience of fine-dining, ambience and delightful delicacies is bound to stir quite some excitement amongst the people of the city. The technical support of the restaurant has been provided by Food Stop Hospitality Solutions LLP.

Timings: 11.00 am to 11.00 pm

For further information please contact:

Sreeraj Mitra / Atreyee Ghosh

Sagittarius.Inc

Ph: 9007307884 / 8697719307