Aakash Aath Hosts The Concluding Show Of 'Bhakter Duware Maa Sarada'

- The Biggest On Stage Adaptation Of The Successful Mega Devotional Serial Jagat Janani Maa Sarada -

Kolkata, 19th April, 2018: Aakash Aath, one of the most popular regional general entertainment channel, hosted the concluding show of 'Bhakter Duare Maa Sarada', the biggest on stage adaptation of their mega devotional serial, Jagat Janani Maa Sarada. This is the 58th edition of the show which has created mass hysteria across all the districts of West Bengal.

Jagat Janani Maa Sarada started airing almost one and half years back after the success of 'Om Sai Ram'. The actors have enacted their roles with such authenticity and emotion that it has created a huge ripple amongst the viewers. The followers of the programme often visit the sets of Maa Sarada with offerings to Sarada Maa and Ramakrishna Paramhansa. The people have taken them as the prototypes of such symbolic personalities and therefore express their ultimate desire for submission in front of the characters.

"The concluding show of Bhakter Duare Maa Sarada has been scripted completely in a different manner. It was the last opportunity for the followers of the programme to be able to witness the galore of Lord Ramakrishna and Maa Sarada together. The audience response has been the key to the success of these shows", said Ms Eshita Surana, Director of Aakash Aath.

This show has been hosted in various districts of West Bengal like Krishnanagar, Chandannagar, Barasat, Durgapur, Asansol, Siliguri, etc with the ardent followers of the serial. The lead star cast of the program, Suman Kundu (Ramakrishna Krishna Paramhansa Deb), Arpita Mondal (Maa Sarada) and Debanjan Chatterjee (Swami Vivekananda) along with Ms Eshita Surana, Director of Aakash Aath had been visiting different places across the state and interacting with the audience.
