What's Up! Café's New High - Rise

- Introduces An Upper Deck Alongwith An Elaborate Indian Menu And Sizzling Cocktails -

Kolkata, 4th December, 2019: Kolkata's most popular hangout zone, What's Up! Café, off Southern Avenue never failing to amaze its guests with new introductions at the Alfresco Bar, recently added a third level upper deck above the existing two levels, giving a pristine view of the city in a cosy ambiance. The upper deck is a 52 seater which takes the total seating capacity of the resto pub to 200. What'sUp! has also introduced an elaborate Indian menu alongwith a range of Bartender's special cocktails.

What's Up! Café is Kolkata's only multi-tier rooftop café with a spectacular view of the South Kolkata skyline. This is probably one of the city's best spots for watching the stars first emerge in the sunset sky. Groovy DJs/Live Music get the party started here on evenings with guests seated at the newly introduced third level rooftop seating, after Skywalk.

"Great innovation only happens when people aren't afraid to do things differently. Believing in the previous statement, me and my partners just went along introducing new things at each step. Innovation is the only way to break the monotony, be it in changing the look and feel of the ambiance or in introducing newer food items to give customers more choice", said MsAnamikaSengupta, Partner, What's Up! Café.

The new additions to the Indian menu of What's Up! Café is different from what is usually served at other cafes and that is what makes the dining experience here a unique affair. With items like Mahi MalaiMakkhanwala, Mahi Roast – Dakshini Style, Fish Kabiraji Cutlet, Prawn Bhaapa, Fowl Kabiraji Cutlet, Reshmi Chicken Chilli, Murgh Butter Masala, Kosha Mangsho – Bengali Style, Mutton DahiVada, Shredded Mutton Kurkure, KeemaMakkhanwala, Malai Paneer Chilli, Soya MalaiMakkhanwala, Gobi Roast - Dakshini Style, Paneer Mustard Cutlet, Yellow Dal Maharani, Mirchi Roti and Assorted Indian Breads including Stuffed and Plain Naan, the café leaves its guests lick off their fingers till the end. These items are priced between Rs 245/- to Rs 1000/-.

What's Up! Café has its own way of attracting customers and their Bar Menu is just an example of it. Be it the ingredients used or the way the drinks are served, the new additions Jalapeno Mexican Cooler, Djinn In A Matka, The Angry Dragon, Xtra Long Island Iced Tea and Balti Liquor (240ML of alcohol + 100 ML of mix) are surely going to be the show stealers. The cocktails are priced between Rs 600/ to Rs 2500/-
