- Directors Of ILS Hospitals Awarded With India's Best Doctor Awards While ILS Hospitals Bags India's Small Business Awards
- Dr Aruna Tantia, Director Of ILS Hospitals Awarded With Chikitsa Ratna Samman By Government Of Tripura

9th March, 2021: The year 2021 begun on a note of optimism and triumph for ILS Hospitals as they consecutively bagged two distinguished awards. While the Directors of ILS Hospitals, Dr Om Tantia and Dr Aruna Tantia were honored with the titles of Most Distinguished Bariatric & Metabolic Surgeon In Eastern India and Most Profound Gynae Endoscopic & Reproductive Surgeon In Eastern India respectively, in the India's Best Doctor Awards. ILS Hospitals also won Small Business Awards in the healthcare sector. Further, Dr Aruna Tantia has been honoured with the prestigious Chikitsa Ratna Samman by Mr Biplab Deb, Hon'ble Chief Minister of Tripura.

Both Dr Om Tantia & Dr Aruna Tantia have been the wind beneath the wings of ILS Hospitals. It is for their sincere commitment and conscientiousness that ILS Group of Hospitals has reached where it is today, having three multi-specialty hospitals across Kolkata and one in Agartala. Both the doctors have time and again proved their worth and witnessed the fruitful culmination of their efforts in being of constant service to the society, while accelerating the growth of the hospitals. It is their dedication which has been responsible towards the steady and steep growth of ILS Hospitals, as their sincere efforts of service and initiatives of spreading awareness about various diseases was very well received by the masses. The Chikitsa Ratna Samman that was bestowed upon Dr Aruna Tantia for her exemplary services during the Covid-19 pandemic was also awarded to Dr Kunal Sarkar for his dedication and contribution to the society during the pandemic.

"Receiving such noble accolades, one leading to the other has been nothing short of spectacular for us. I am glad that our efforts both individual as well as collective have come to fruition and have been recognized by the masses. Also I am extremely reassured to know that the myths surrounding obesity and bariatric surgery are steadily being done away with. This reflects the long standing efforts that have been put in by the entire team across all units of ILS Hospitals", said Dr Om Tantia, Medical Director & Head, Department of Minimal Access and Bariatric Surgery, ILS Hospitals.

"Receiving the Chikitsa Ratna Samman is extremely prestigious and indeed very motivational for me. I am grateful that the community has recognized my services and that I could be of help to the masses during these unprecedented times. I wish to be of optimum service to people and channel my knowledge and efforts in the right direction", said Dr Aruna Tantia, Director & Consultant Surgeon, Gynaecology & Obstetrics, ILS Hospitals.

Being awarded the best and most profound doctors in their respective fields of specialization among the thousands of applications from all across the country, Dr Om Tantia and Dr Aruna Tantia have once again proved what the results of perseverance and resilience can be. The efforts of ILS Hospitals have also been recognized and duly rewarded by them being awarded the Small Business Awards. The reception of these award come forth as valuable additions to the already existing list of honors that has been bestowed upon the group of hospitals. With greater dedication, assiduous efforts and earnest means, ILS Hospitals continues to be of utmost service to one and all, taking Indian healthcare to newer heights every day.
