Kolkata'r Harry tells the story of a carpool driver, who works for the primary section of a convent school. This driver, Harinath Patra (Soham) has an instinctive quality of story-telling. Harinath being a fan of the fairytales and has a hobby of showing magic on the streets of Calcutta. On the other hand there is Titli (Aishika), a 10 year old girl who avails Harinath's pool car service. Titli's mother is very overprotective about her and her concerns for her daughter often turn out to be oppressive. Whereas Titli's father seems to be quite reluctant about the family. Titli has an elder sister Mohor (Priyanka), 14 years older than her, who works in a corporate education institute. Titli and Harinath share a rare kind of friendship; full of magic and stories of a wonderland. Mohor, while inspecting her sister's recent interest in wizardry, gets to meet Harinath. These two contrasting individuals fall in love, equally for each other and for magic at the same time. Then the story moves along as Harinath loses his job and with Mohor's suggestion takes up the dream to make the first ever Story Café in City of Joy - Kolkata. What happens next forms the crux of the story, which will be unveiled on the big screen.

Kolkata'r Harry is slated to release across Multiplexes and Single Screens of West Bengal in November, 2021.
