Celluloid Films Premieres Their Maiden Venture, “Haati Haati Paa Paa” - A Story Of Love, Duty And Family Bonds

Kolkata, 28th November, 2025: Celluloid Films, today, premiered their much-awaited emotional drama Haati Haati Paa Paa, directed by Arnab K Middya. The film features Chiranjeet Chakraborty & Rukmini Maitra in the lead, supported by an ensemble cast including Anjana Basu, Tulika Basu, Sandeep Bhattacharjee, Biswarup Bandyopadhyay, Eshika Dey, Swagata Basu, Sayan Ghosh and Monalisa Chatterjee.

“Haati Haati Paa Paa” brings to the screen a heartfelt and tender narrative centred on a young woman and her aging father as they navigate the realities of emotional responsibility, generational shifts and the silent weight of caregiving. Set in a modern urban landscape, the film delves deep into themes of unconditional love, duty, loneliness and intergenerational ties, highlighting the quiet yet powerful emotions that bind families together. The film was selected and screened at the recently concluded International Film Festival Of India in Goa.

“Haati Haati Paa Paa is not just a story, it is an emotional journey that reflects the unspoken bonds between parents and children. With this film, I wanted to capture the silent love, the invisible responsibilities and the emotional realities that families experience today. Sometimes love does not need words, it just needs someone’s presence”, said Mr Arnab K Middya, Director of Haati Haati Paa Paa.

Produced by Arunava Middya under the banner of Celluloid Films, the creative team of the movie includes Cinematographer, Indranath Marick, Editor, Pronoy Dasgupta, Sound Designer, Amit Kumar Dutta, Screenplay Writer Priyanka Poddar and Art Director Ananda Adhya. The music has been composed by Ranajoy Bhattacharjee and Anirban Ajoy Das, adding emotional depth to the film’s storytelling.

“Haati Haati Paa Paa” has released across single screens and multiplexes of West Bengal today. The film promises to offer a touching, relatable and deeply human cinematic experience crafted with sincerity and emotional insight.
